PROVOST AND EXECUTIVE VICE CHANCELLOR (P/EVC)

RE: Delegation of Authority (DA) – Academic Personnel Manual (APM) Section APM-220, Faculty Appointments, Reappointments, Merits and Promotions

In accordance with the Academic Personnel Manual (APM) Section APM-100-d, Chancellors may re-delegate authority for implementation of academic personnel policies unless otherwise restricted. APM-220 pertains to faculty appointments, reappointments, merit increases and promotions. Pursuant to the policy, the Chancellor may re-delegate the authority for implementation of the policy to a designee.

Effective immediately, as Chancellor and pursuant to the authority delegated to me, I delegate the following authority to you:

- Following appropriate levels of academic review, administrative authority to make final decisions for the approval of appointments, reappointments, merit increases, promotions and the award of tenure for all academic personnel cases within the Professor Series as defined in APM, section 220.
- Subject to all other University and Merced campus policies and procedures.
- Source of authority: APM 100-d, General University Policy Regarding Academic Appointees, and APM-220, Appointment and Promotion, Professor Series.

This authority may not be further re-delegated.

This authority supersedes UC Merced delegation No. 111 dated January 9, 2013.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Leland
Chancellor
